ARTICLE I

Tuition Credit Program

[Adopted 6-7-1999]

- § 14-1. Statutory authority.
 - A. N.J.S.A. 18A:71-78 et seq. allows eligible members of volunteer fire companies, first-aid or rescue squads who serve as members for at least four years to receive tuition credits at county colleges, vocational schools or technical institutes.

B. N.J.S.A. 18A:71-78.1 et seq., a copy of which is attached hereto,¹ sets out the eligibility standards for this tuition credit program.

§ 14-2. Program to be tax-free to citizens.

This tuition credit program is accomplished without any direct taxation of the citizens of the Borough of Swedesboro.

§ 14-3. Borough to participate in program; notification of eligibility.

The Mayor and Council of the Borough of Swedesboro in the County of Gloucester and State of New Jersey shall participate in this program, and the Mayor is hereby directed to issue a letter of eligibility to any volunteer who meets the criteria set forth in the statute.
